DEMOCRATS BLOCKADE ANTI-ALIEN MEASURE.

Make a Formal Stand in Legislature in Support of National Administration and Introduce Resolution to Postpone Action Until Next Session—Caminetti Drafts New Amendments Which Will Be Offered Today.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

SACRAMENTO, May 1.—An indication of the form the Democratic opposition will take to the passage of the Webb redraft of the anti-alien land bill was given in the Senate today when the measure came up for final action.

It was the original plan of the Pro-gressive majority, in its assurance of a successful issue, to force the bill to a vote at once, but at the request of the Democrats a postponement of one day was granted at the last minute. The measure was then given a special order for 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

In return for the delay the administration leaders received a pledge from the minority that it would abide by the results as shown in the final roll call tomorrow, and not demand a re-call of the measure. The Progressives feel that, although apparently they lost a day, in reality they saved several by checking all further efforts to impede their plans.

MOTION TO POSTPONE.

The brief debate on the motion to postpone disclosed that the Democrats had had no communication from Washington as delivered by Secretary of State Bryan, and will make a formal stand in support of the national administration. In order to meet this, Senator Curtin (Democrat) introduced resolution setting forth the fact that President Wilson is opposed to an alien land bill and including the following resolution:

"That it is resolved: That the people of the State of California do hereby defer to the wishes of the President of the United States and this Legislature will not at this session pass the bills herein mentioned."

Although few of the minority will declare their views, it is generally believed that to the extent of supporting Curtin's resolution the Democrats will be in line.

BEYOND THAT, however, their party platform in California calls upon them to aid in the enactment of an anti-alien-land law, and most of them are anxious to call their constituents for the Webb bill in its present form if it succeeds in escaping amendment.

AMENDMENTS INCUBATING.

Senator Caminetti (Democrat) working independently of his colleagues is preparing several amendments to the Webb bill to be offered tomorrow. The drafters were disappointed tonight, he said, and he declined to discuss the changes he expects to propose. The majority leaders, however, will resist all efforts to amend.

No apprehension is felt on account of the warning against the Webb bill telegraphed yesterday to Gov. Johnson from President Wilson.

It is the wish both of Gov. Johnson and Atty.-Gen. Webb that, regardless of how the act were worded, it should not involve an appeal to the courts, as suggested by President Wilson.

Atty.-Gen. Webb, in a statement tonight, said:

"I have shown the President's telegram to the Governor to the effect that the Webb bill might involve an appeal to the courts, and it has been in the minds of everyone having to do with this subject of legislation, since the beginning of the session, that any character of bill must necessarily involve the same thing."

No method of avoiding an appeal to the courts by the parties interested has been found, and it might involve an appeal to the courts, and it has been in the minds of everyone having to do with this subject of legislation, since the beginning of the session, that any character of bill must necessarily involve the same thing.

"No method of avoiding an appeal to the courts by the parties interested has been found, and it might involve an appeal to the courts, and it has been in the minds of everyone having to do with this subject of legislation, since the beginning of the session, that any character of bill must necessarily involve the same thing."

"Indeed, whenever any legislation affects the property rights of our own citizens, it has customarily been thought quite the proper thing to have such rights measured and determined by the courts, and the courts of other nations, as to our own citizens, and as to the citizens and subjects of other nations may have their rights determined and enforced."

"If this act should be passed I quite realize that hereafter some person may have a claim greater right than the act would give him, in fact, he may give him, and in that case it would be quite proper for the courts to pass upon the question. I am at a loss, however, at this time to understand how the Federal government could become in any way involved in or responsible for such a contention."

Secretary Bryan, who has been in the temporary office at the capitol building here, with the inspection trip through a near-by Japanese colony, has declined to discuss the question raised by the President.

There is no question in the future movements of the Secretary of State, who has given out no word as to his

"It would drive nine-tenths of the Japanese from the islands and leave it in the hands of the Japanese, who might be able to exist on the reduced profit from the work of sugar plantations," said the writer.

ACCUSE BARON OF LAND FRAUD.

Portland Women Think They Have Been Swindled.

Los Angeles Notation Opens Eyes of Purchasers.

THE DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES! PORTLAND (Or.) May 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mourers by the score among the hotel employees of the city, practically all of them women, were left behind when "Baron" H. C. W. Gottlieb, said to be a clever land swindler, and his beautiful wife, the "Baroness," left town on April 8.

The matter was brought to light through complaints from the victims to the District Attorney. The police are now active in an attempt to trace the couple who are supposed to be operating somewhere on the Oregon Sound. The woman and his wife have been here, moving from one hotel to another as rapidly as "trade conditions" made it advisable. He asserted that he owned a forty-thousand acre ranch, which he vaguely located as lying 25 miles southeast of San Diego. Elaborate deeds were delivered to the purchaser, and contained 100 acres of land, for which Gottlieb always received $100 in cash. Every representation, it is alleged, was made by him to induce the belief that the land was in the State of California, and the deeds in fact contained the printed words "County of Los Angeles, State of California."

Mylcie L. England, Oregon Hotel, declares she gave Gottlieb $100 which she could ill afford, and sent the deed to Los Angeles for record. It was returned with the notation that the land was in Mexico.

Four Japanese Sailors Take French Leave—Three Are Likely in Davy Jones's Locker Now.

THE DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES! PORTLAND (Or.) May 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Evading the watchful gaze of Portland men who had been employed to keep an eye on the sailors, four Japanese sailors agreed to desert early this morning from the Japanese steamship manzan Maru, Capt. Salter, one of whom effected an escape just before the vessel left Rainier for Portland and the other three as it was coming up the river.

It is supposed that the three either succeeded in swimming ashore or they were drowned. Capt. Salter said today that they were on the steamer after the craft had started up stream. He did not miss them until morning and they were on board at 12 o'clock last night. The trio are believed to have gone over the side, dropped into the river and attempted to swim to shore.

Junkichi Yamashita, the master, and Ryokichi Nagi, whose occupation is given as that of a "boy" in port, fled with Immigration Inspector Barbour, who is investigating. Nagi has not been located, while the names of the other two who made their escape. The quartermaster is 23 and the "boy" is 20 years old. When the manzan Maru arrived in the port from Japan she had 53 passengers aboard.

Capt. Salter has given assurances to Inspector Barbour that he will do everything in his power to prevent desertions. He plans to keep the sailors under lock and key on the steamer at nights during her stay in the harbor. The Japanese are a regular loading lumber at the Portland mill, which will be along toward the middle of the month before she will be ready to leave on the outward trip. She will clear with about 3,000,000 feet of lumber.

CONTEMPT STILL PUNISHABLE.

State Senate Defeats Measure to Which National Platform Had Pledged the Progressives.

THE DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES!

SACRAMENTO, May 1.—Contempt of court, so far as the State legislature goes, remains punishable under the Statutes of California in the degree and manner hitherto prescribed.

On motion to reconsider Senator Tyrell's bill providing that contempt committed elsewhere than in the presence of the court, to be tried by a jury was rejected to the file by a vote of 23 to 10, after it had previously passed.

Senator Wright of San Diego made the chief arguments against it, on the grounds that it was subversive of law and order and the Constitution of California. Senator Tyrell and Senator Shantz (Dem.) defended it.

The proposal was a plank in the Progressive national platform. On account of the congested condition of the file, it is not probable that the bill will come up for consideration again this session.

The bill creates a "pension fund," which is to be maintained by contributions of one dollar per month from teachers; five per cent. of the inheritance tax gifts, bequests or appropriations. Any teacher claiming a pension under this act must have paid into the fund $200.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES] NOGALES (Ariz.) May 1.—Between 1800 and 2000 Federal soldiers were landed at Guaymas from transports today. This, it is believed, insures the point against capture by the Constitutionalists.

The long delayed Constitutional attack on Guaymas now is expected to take the form of a land and naval battle, according to advices today. However, the Constitutionalists first will move against Torin, a small town on the Southern Pacific southern of Guaymas. A hundred men in a single troop left Empalme Sunday to join Col. C. B. Hill and his 400 men in attacking Torin. Refugees from Guaymas report a food famine imminent in that city.

Two mortars captured at Naco were driven south from Nogales together with ample ammunition.

"Diaz offered to put himself entirely at the disposal of Constitutionalists in every way and to serve any order given him," stated the Carranza reply. "His offer to obey Carranza in all things was as complete as possible." Carranza absolutely refused to entertain the offer to treat with him in any way, and ordered the emissaries to leave the country at once which they did.

[REVOLT IN MICHOACAN.]

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Foreigners in Ciudad Porfirio Diaz, Sabinas, Alende, Musquiz and other towns in Coahuila will close their doors at once on account of Gen. Carranza's decree forcing his paper money into circulation. Taxes have been raised twenty per cent to finance the Carranza campaign. The situation in Acapulco is reported grave and there is widespread disorder throughout the State of Michoacan.

Tracy Aubert is said to be at Lampazos. No opposition worthy of mention is reported to have been made by the Carranza forces.

Show Burden Eventually Falls on Public.

Blame Organizations for Extra Crew Bills.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, May 1.—Managers of eastern railroads declined today to grant higher wages to conductors and trainmen. The managers, in a reply sent to the Order of Railway Conductors and Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, say that the present wages are liberal and in many cases excessive and that the request for an increase is declined. "In the interests of the public, we hold the public interest paramount."

"Already the traffic of a growing country has increased, the heavy burdens incurred through ill-advised legislation, such as extra crew bills—for which the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen alone is responsible—have forced on the railroads, and consequently on the public, needless expenditures of millions of dollars annually. All these factors are making it impossible for many of the roads to provide those facilities which prudent foresight demands and which the interests of the public require."

The submission of the railroads is to be accepted by the committee of conference between the committee of the conductors and trainmen's organization. On its receipt, the conductors' and Trainmen's Committee went into conference to consider what further action would be taken.

This idea that $25 is a good price to pay for a suit of clothes

seems to have struck a responsive chord in the minds of a lot of men. Many of you realize that you have been too careless about clothes buying; you've spent your money for results you didn't really get.

There's no reason why you shouldn't buy your clothes just as you do other things; with the same demand for a value-equivalent for your money. If you demand goods at the lowest possible price, you must expect to get the lowest poss'ble value. The importance of paying a little more lies in the more you get in looks and durability.

If men were more careful on this price point, they'd get better returns for their money. We suggest $25 for a suit as a good place to start your reform.

JUDGESHIP FOR CAMPBELL

Political Manager of Oscar Underwood Named by Wilson on Court of Claims.

INT'L P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES

WASHINGTON, May 1.—E. K. Campbell of Birmingham, Ala., for many years political manager for Representative Oscar Underwood, has been selected by President Wilson for a seat in the United States Court of Claims. The Senate Committee on Claims had recommended him for appointment to this seat for Wilson, but the Underwood could not be nominated.

The selection of Mr. Campbell for the judgeship probably means the elevation of Judge Charles B. Howry of Oxford, Miss., to Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals. The nomination also was scheduled for today.

Dramatic Arrest.

Two Hundred Loads of Joy on Wheels.

That May Day Ride the Jolliest the Kiddies Ever Had.

Automobilists Take Fifteen Hundred Poor Children to Venice and the Beach City Gives Them the Time of Their Lives, Everything Free and Plenty of It—More Pink in Lemonade.

BY GRACE KINGSLEY.

WAS THE May Day joy ride for the poor kiddies a success?

"Why," as one of the auto drivers expressed it, "it would just naturally make a fire in a fireworks factory look as dull as a gas jet on a foggy night."

Palmetto Dominguez, the little Mexican in the coupe-car, gaily decked out in the costume of the day, led the drivers, led the procession, and J. S. Conwell, with his white hair and courtly manner, was a gracious and dignified grand marshal.

The long line of autos, of every breed, from the small wagons to the blooded limousines left "The Blyouac" out at Westlake at 1:30 o'clock, the kids yelling themselves hoarse to a hymn of "Hooray" and prancing in a few minutes the procession of 200 autos, bearing 500 children, were winding like a serpent through the green fields, along the satin roads, on their way to the training sea. It was the jolliest trip the children ever had.

Some of the autos were overflowing, others were nearly empty. That was because no boy who sighted an auto in the offing—whatever that is—would let it go without a quorum of least half a dozen passengers.

"Aw, mister, just take me! I was a wall not to be resisted by the most headless driver."

SOME GOING.

Six little pickaninnies rode in a red machine. They rolled their eyes and shone their white teeth, and nodded their kinky heads in ecstasy. One of them insisted on driving the machine part of the way, too, and the way that youngster burned up the asphaltum—a sphynx how he ever came out alive!

"Say, I'm going to buy that blackie for a chauffeur when I get rich" chuckled the owner of the car.

Ten little Japs made their driver hoist the speedometer.

"We have to speed up for those little brown men," said the owner. "Why, we made the other auto look like a go-cart on an upgrade. It was all I could do to keep them from running over the May queen."

Mrs. H. D. Page's car was handsomely decorated with flags, and she brought several little girls from the South Pasadena Orphan Asylum. "We're going to be the prettiest car!" the kids said. They prettily saluted the old soldiers as they went through the Soldiers' Home grounds, and the veterans leaned on their canes and waved their hats.

JUST LIKE SUNDAY.

When they reached Venice, the concession owners must have thought the authorities had declared another Sunday, they were so instantly engaged.

The kiddies tumbled out of the autos, overflowed the merry-go-round, riding every beastie from the spotty leopard to the meek bunny, they rode on the little young train, they bumped the bumper cars, they rode the roller coaster—sometimes two at a pop; and lined up in front of the pink lemonade stand generously furnished by Ward McFadden, like little Oliver's asking for more.

"Not pink enough," said a small Mexican in lofty disdain.

"All right," said the man, good-naturedly, putting in some more of the pink stuff.

"Tain't pink enough yet!" declared the youth.

Watch the man put in pink stuff until the small boy's jades must today resemble a sunset on Lake Michigan.

WAVES EXPLODE.

W. F. Radis took his bunch out on the pier, and reports one little girl who had never seen the ocean, except in an aero, tone: "Oh, just heaven the way you look."

Then he took them over and let them real on the "Virginia Reel."

"Aren't you scared?" I asked a little fellow whose teeth were mounting, so that he could—and proudly did—spit them out.

"Gum," he said, "that's what we came for!"

Well all the youngsters were kidishly falling over each other, to get a chance to ride on the "Rapids," a little Jay boy bowed low before the keeper, and ceremoniously asked, "Please, please, your excellency, I should ride on your honorable Rapids."

Needless to say, it did.

The high-grade peanut man couldn't cook peanuts bad enough for the bunch of school youngsters.

One man who wouldn't give his name sat at the helm of the popcorn stand. A particular small boy kept recurring from time to time, to ask for popcorn, until his unvarying similarity to himself attracted the man's attention.

NO METER ON HIM.

"How many bushels do you hold?" asked the man, good-humoredly.

"Don't know, mister," piped up the youngster, fresh as mountain air, "I ain't got my meter on today."

Helen, the Children's Hospital, was the star attraction of the day. She paraded on the midway, and the crowd threw money at her, and laughed and begged for more. She counted out, at the end, four dollars and eighty-eight cents. I'll bet that was the biggest four eighty-eight ever in captivity.

In the aquarium the old ad'hd said: "Oh, look at the devilish squirt ink," and tried to feed the old seals peanuts.

Six little deaf and dumb kiddies, walking away from their teacher, and being unable to find her walked up to a benevolent looking old gentleman and pounded him on the legs.

"What do you want?" he asked. They only pounded his legs some more.

"Well," he inquired a little more seriously, "some more."

At this time the old gentleman was dancing up and down in wrath. Then he saw a little girl making deaf-and-dumb signs, and he cooled off, and helped them find their mentor.

LIKES OUR SCHOOLS.

Representative of University of Illinois Finds Los Angeles the Educational Center of California.

H. A. Hollister of Chicago, high school inspector for the University of Illinois, was present at the meeting of the Board of Education yesterday and addressed the board. He spoke candidly of the purpose of his visit as an investigator of school conditions.

When I say to you that of the several weeks I am spending in this State I am giving three or four times as much time to Los Angeles as to any other center of population, you may know how I regard the situation here. I am not at all satisfied with the public schools in the face of the most trying circumstances. It is a most remarkable case of good management having known no enemies in the public schools in the face of the most trying circumstances. It is a most remarkable instance. You are furnishing here for the concrete some very fine illustrations of what can be accomplished when the best ideas in education are put into effect."

President Steadman thanked the speaker for his words of commendation and created a laugh by adding the hope that he "might soon come back to stay."

TRUSTED CHIEF CLERK IN THE COUNTY JAIL.

Employee of the Santa Fe an Alleged Forger and Embezzler.

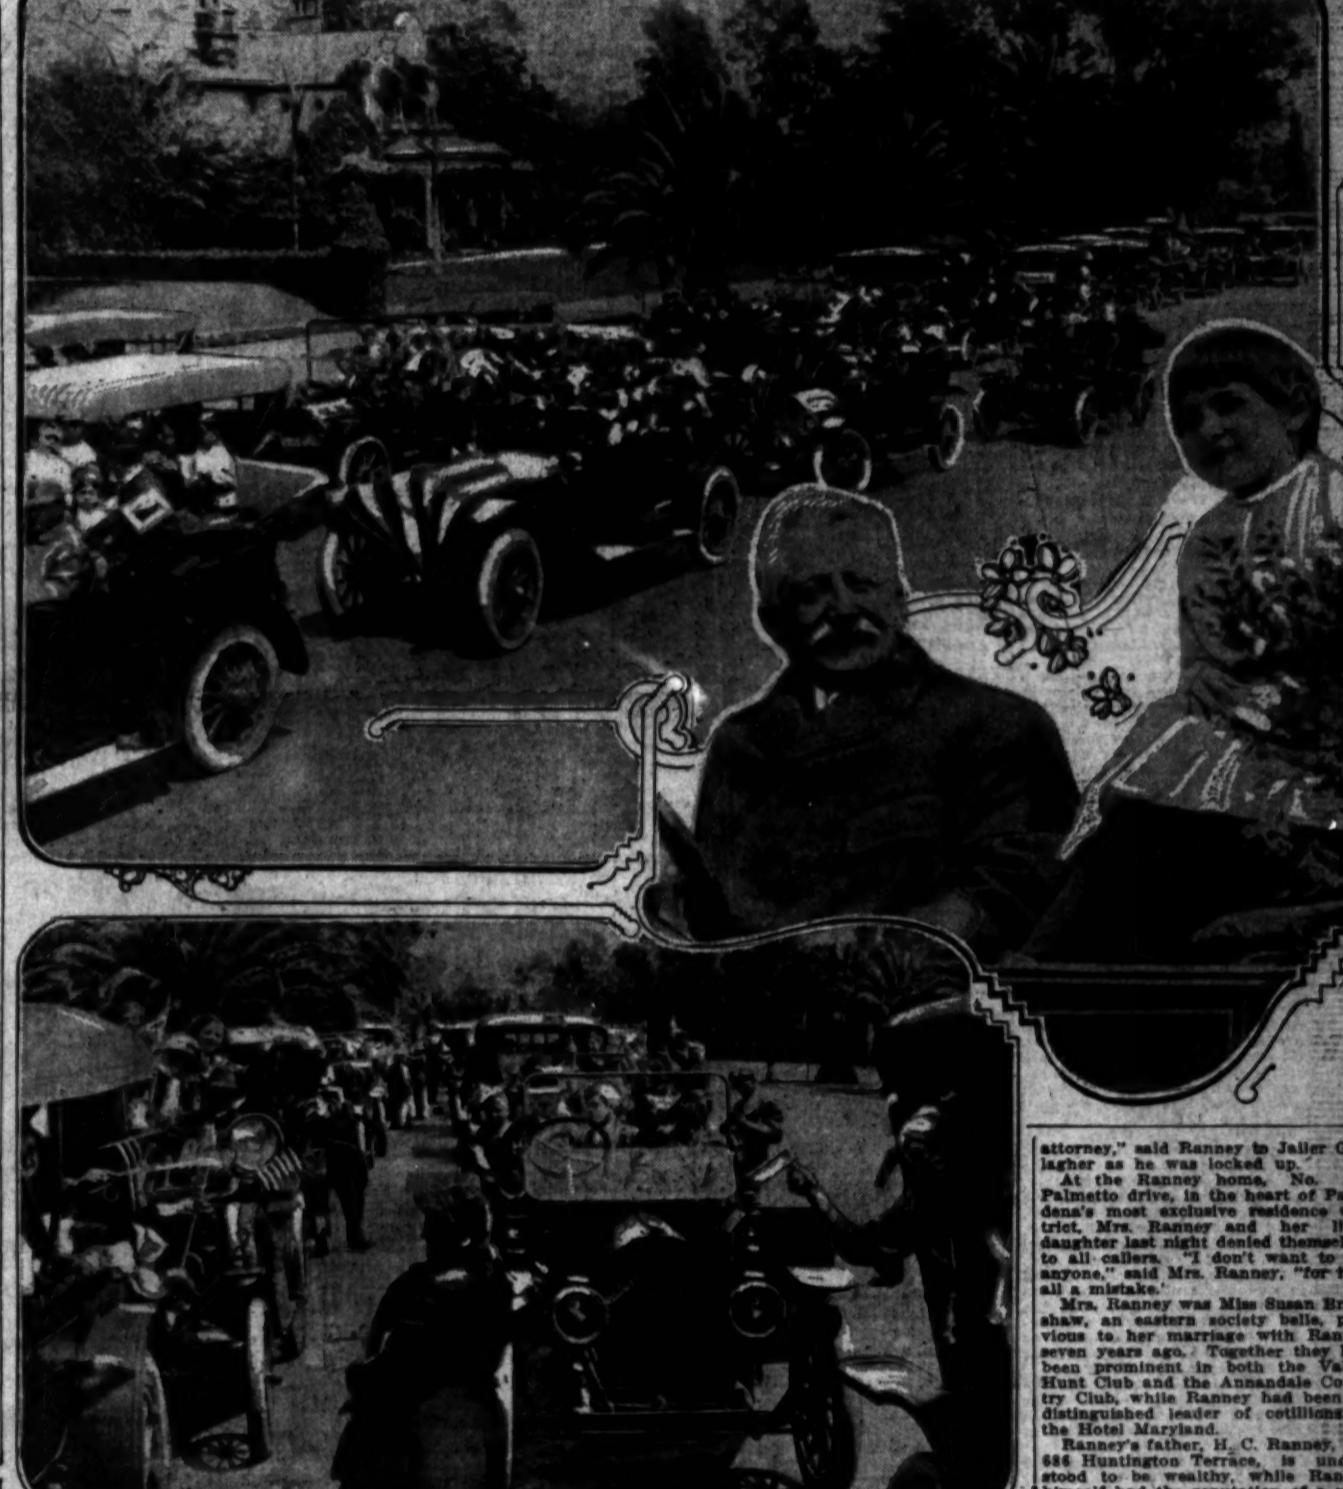

Society and Club Man, a Pasadena Cotillion Leader, Steals Sixty Thousand Dollars and Covers His Tracks Six Years, According to District Attorney's Office. Had Confidence of Company Officials.

ROMINENT in the ultra-fashions circles of this city and Pasadena's Valley Hunt Club, cotillion leader, jail fellow, well-set, William St. John Ranney, trusted chief clerk to Auditor L. B. Jones of the Santa Fe coast lines, was arrested as dearson and Superintendent Haines of the Pinkerton agency on his way to the County Jail. His bail was fixed at $25,000 by Justice Summerfield. This may be increased today, when he is arraigned for preliminary hearing in the Justice Court.

"I do not want to see anyone except members of my family and my

Start of the May Day Joy Ride yesterday afternoon.

Matrimonial Marathon.

FOUR ENTRANTS; HAPPINESS GOAL.

TWO COUPLES TO START ON ODD RACE TONIGHT.

Fifty Spectators Will See Minister Send 'Em Away on Life-long Run. Without Handicaps, Without Obstacles and With Blessings of Friends—Prizes.

Dr. Charles Edward Locke is to be the official starter tonight in what will probably be one of the most unusual races ever run in this country—a "Matrimonial Marathon."

The entrants are Miss Augustin Moore, No. 518 West First street; Miss Margaret Moore, her sister, an employee of the Union Hardware and Metal Company, No. 8974 La Balle Avenue, and George W. Moore, a Southern Pacific railroad man, whose home is in Fresno.

The race is to start at 8 o'clock tonight at Kyle's residence, without rules and regulations which permits either of the four to pull away from the other, and the number of entrants will be decided by the starter—the end of the mortal coil.

Another peculiar feature of the race is the provision from the bookman rules and regulations which permits either of the four participants, eager and fully prepared for the race, to be eliminated.

Fifty spectators will only be permitted to hear the starter's official "Ready! On your mark! Go!"

Probably one of the queerest angles from the entrants' viewpoint is the fact that the prizes are to be distributed yesterday specifically charged with having embezzled $7970 from the railroad company by the use of forged vouchers. Though Santa Fe officials would make no statement, it was admitted by them that the populations of the delinquent society had been exonerated of a term of years and that the total amount taken may run as high as $66,000. It would be no surprise to some of them if it should be $1,000,000.

The arrest of Ranney came as the result of a complaint by the auditor to the auditor of the Santa Fe, by which he had been employed the past ten years—six years as chief clerk in the local office and part of that time as acting assistant auditor, with $175 monthly salary.

The arrest itself was the climax to a series of events dramatic in the extreme. At the time the warrant was being issued by Justice Summers, he said last night that each of the four entrants is already surfeited with Arrest Attention.

PERFECT SCORE BY THE POLICE.

Enthusiastic Hundreds See Annual Review.

Military Observers Award Hundred Per Cent.

Parade Merits Approval of Thousands.

Chasing thousands of metropolitans representing the professional, business and social life of the city paid vociferous homage to the police department at the annual inspection and review at Fiesta Park and during the parade on South Broadway yesterday afternoon.

Military observers pronounced the score for drill and appearance at review 100 per cent. perfect.

Gen. Robert Wankowski and several retired army officers and other military experts who officially witnessed the inspection pronounced in their estimates and the hundreds of men, women, and children who saw the enthusiastic martial spectacle sent their approbation in ringing applause to the boys in olive drab.

Drill and maneuvering and bearing marked the drill.

Spick and span in olive drab blouses and breeches, white gloves, leather caps and tan shoes the 250 policemen who reviewed the department were a credit to the city.

Fiesta Park glowed under a warm sun; hundreds of invited guests, women included, basked in the grand stand.

The sun was free from obstruction as were the performers of drill in their maneuvers: Pico street, Grand avenue and surrounding streets for a block in four directions were堵 with automobiles.

Another roar of approval rose from the bleachers over the Pico street portal and swept around the grand stand as Chief Sebastian and the national and new department colors swept under the arch at the head of the baton.

DRILL PARADE.

In columns of fours to the stirring strains of a martial quickstep, Lieut. Krieg's company leading, swept into the parade ground, followed by three more companies in command of Lieut. Spillman, Hirsch, Adams.

Stepping into formation from an order from the drill master, Capt. Lenhausen, who was mounted on a beautiful, nervous little black, the four companies, shoulder to shoulder, then advanced five paces to the front and Cossack style, Capt. Lenhausen in the honor position, marched in unbroken line from end to end of the field.

City motorcycle police, patrol wagon and the ambulance took up their positions in the center of the field and the foot policemen maneuvered, finally dropping into company front and halting before the vehicles division, ready for inspection.

Chief Sebastian, the Mayor and the Civil Service and Police commissioners then inspected the men who stood at attention, "eyes front," and faces at the "ready."

One of the most interesting and spectacular features of the review and inspection was the maneuvers of the traffic squad under command of Lieut. Butler. Butler is responsible for the splendid showing made by his men, who maneuvered in a manner worthy of the inspection.

Chief Sebastian, the Mayor and the Civil Service and Police commissioners then inspected the men who stood at attention, "eyes front," and faces at the "ready."

On the first day of the review and inspection was the maneuver of the traffic squad under command of Lieut. Butler. Butler is responsible for the splendid showing made by his men, who maneuvered in a manner worthy of the inspection.

FLAG PRESENTATION.

Presentation of the new department colors, the beautiful new flag bearing the city seal, was made, chief usher receiving the flag from the Mayor, who then formally presenting it to his men. Dismounted,立正:

"I charge that you be faithful to the city that under these colors you stand, and that you commit to you; let no motive induce you to swear from your duty nor violate your trust."

The mounted squad, the motorcycle division and members of the traffic squad then maneuvered, followed by more drills on the part of the foot police and the circling of the park by the vehicular division.

For the first time this year that the men appeared in their colors, the blue uniforms being discarded Wednesday night. They also wore the new silver-and-bronze badges which Wednesday supplanted the old.

The police marched through the two-street archway and followed by scores of automobiles containing the invited guests, the procession moved back to headquarters.

SHERLOCK HOLMES
and Arsene Lupin were undoubtedly more spectacular in their methods, but not one whit more accurate in their work than the capable sleuths of the "Detective" column of the Times' "Liner" section.

My Marine Eye Remedy for Red, Watery Eye and Gouty Eyes.

OBJECTS TO TRESPASSERS.

Man Recently Examined on Insanity Charge Again Arrested—Threatens Stranglers With Shotgun.

William Ugel, known as the "Hermit of Calabasas," was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Fox and Sepulveda. "This is the second time he has been apprehended because of his actions."

Several weeks ago Ugel attempted to block a road along which Affairs' Allender was passing in his automobile. He threatened many passers-by who went into his field, armed with a shotgun when persons approached his place.

He was examined before Judge Willis on a insanity charge but the jury disagreed.

Ugel told the officers at the County Jail yesterday that he considers he has a right to prevent trespassers crossing his land, even to the extent of using a gun.

Accusative Bargaining?

AFTER WEALTHY PASADENA MAN.

WAIVER OUT FOR CAPITALIST CHARGING FRAUD.

President Pacific Utilities and Investment Company Accuses George Portland Man of Having Schemed. Fifty Thousand Dollars by Alleged Misrepresentation.

R. S. McDowell, a Pasadena capitalist, formerly of Portland, is wanted on a warrant issued on a complaint from the District Attorney's office yesterday, charging him with having obtained money under false pretenses. He is accused by O. J. Delaney, president of the Pacific Utilities and Investment Company, of defrauding that company out of more than $50,000 by misrepresenting the valuation of property he gave in exchange for a ranch at Downey.

According to Delaney's statement, McDowell is the owner of various pieces of acre of valuable land in Oregon and is rated as a man of wealth. The complaint recites that McDowell bargained with the Pacific Utilities and Investment Company for a ranch near Downey, valued at about $50,000. Delaney says he is said to have given title to sixty-three lots near Portland and a mortgage of $15,000 on 440 acres of land near that city.

Investigations made by the reality company are reported to show that the combined property is worth less than $7000. The mortgage was given by Mrs. Fredina S. Phelps on property that had been transferred to her by McDowell. Deputy District Attorney Hayes announced yesterday that Mrs. Phelps would be asked to give evidence at the trial.

TERRIBLE EYES ENTRANCING.

WOMAN CHARGES THEY'RE USED FOR ROBBING HER.

Tells of Gigantic Man Who Wants Her to Make the Living If He Consents to Marriage—Asks Prosecutor for Protection from Accusations of Thieving Persecutor.

Eyes that made her stand trembling while the corner calmly robbed her of money and valuables, were reported to the police last night by Mrs. H. Covington, a stenographer, living at No. 415½ Temple street. The two terrible eyes, as effective as gun barrels, held her up last night, she said, while the unnamed man robbed her of a diamond ring among other things. A complaint will be lodged against him with the City Prosecutor today.

The prowling eyes that so intimidate Mrs. Covington are the 6 feet 6 inches tall, she says. When she came here from Kentucky, where she met the man, she says, she met, immediately she began to quail, she said, and ever since has she been able to retain her self-possession when in his presence.

Such power over her did the eyes have, she says, that when they look at her she begins to tremble, and when the owner's hand goes into her purse and takes all her money, she can't protest. Last night, she says, the eyes again made her tremble and stood still, quivering with trevor and an additional sensation that she cannot describe, while the owner of the eyes slipped the ring off her finger.

Once, she complains, the man asked for a prenuptial agreement with the restriction that she must agree to earn all the money.

MORE EXPOSURES FROM CANTRELL.Former Socialist Organizer Tells of Dark Deeds.Members of Socialist Party Betrayed by Leaders.Expulsion the Penalty for Not Keeping Silent.

In this letter, the fifth of his series, Edward Adams Cantrell, the former State Organizer of the Socialist party, exposes the corruption, grafting and worse crimes of leaders who have betrayed the party, quoting from affidavits and documents on file in the courts.

LOS ANGELES, May 1.—To the Editor of The Times: It has come to me, from sources which I consider reliable, that before the dynamiting of the Times Building, on October 1, 1910, was committed, foundations were laid for a possible bomb defense of the perpetrators of that crime. It was planned to have the gas pipes in the Times Building cut in time for the gas to escape in sufficient quantity to become noticeable to the employees of the building. The testimony of these employees could then be used to establish the gas theory of the explosion.

However this may be, we know that in May, 1910, members of the dynamiting gang were in Los Angeles, and the leaders of the gang were in conference with the union-labor attorneys.

Job Harriman brought some of them to our Socialist Club to luncheon. Among the men, introduced by Harriman to our club, were Anton Johnson and Edward W. Miller. This last name was the pseudonym of Schmidt, "Smitty," one of the trio who did the actual work of dynamiting the Times Building. As before related, the register of the Hotel Chapman, under date of May 20, bears the names of A. Johannes, O. A. Tedstone, Andrew J. Galanher, J. A. Kelley, Edward W. Miller ("Smitty"), John S. Nolen, Eric B. Morton, J.

B. Bric (J. B. McNamara,) Job Harriman.

EMPLOYMENT OF LEVERING.
Now comes another circumstance, the essential facts of which, form a chapter in one of the most amazing stories in the history of modern crime.

Immediately after The Times explosion, Harriman was at work on the case, and he had over the report written by John Kenneth Fullerton, the union man who "investigated" the cause of the explosion. On October 16, ten days after the disaster, Harriman employed J. H. Levering, for the purpose of "reproducing the principal pieces of machinery, pipe connections with the streets, fire escapes, means of egress and ingress of the building, etc." At the time this contract was made, he had paid Levering a well-worn pencil sketch of the first and second floors of the Times Building, including sketch of "Ink Alley." This sketch was not particularly correct for technical purposes, but was sufficient to guide a man through the building. He paid Levering a retaining fee of $50. The contract between them was that he would pay him, altogether, the sum of $500, which he had not yet paid.

The significant fact here is that Harriman later made affidavit to the fact that this sum of $500 was part of the "McNamara defense fund." The "McNamara defense fund" was the name given to the amount of $5000 which this and following facts were disclosed, will illustrate the methods employed by these labor attorneys, Harriman and Darrow, in exploiting their clients, their associates, and the law movement in general.

After the dynamiting gang had been ferreted out and arrested, made, Clarence Darrow came to Los Angeles as chief counsel for the McNamara. After looking over preliminary outlines, it appears that Levering's work was greatly enlarged upon Darrow's insistence, particularly the work with all diligence, even on Sundays and holidays. This was done, but later, when the question of payment for this work came up there was serious misunderstanding.

LEVERING'S AFFIDAVIT.

How this arose, has been told by Levering in the following affidavit, which was submitted to the secretary of the Los Angeles Bar Association. J. H. Levering, being first deposed and sworn deposes and says:

That on or about the first day of June, 1911, at the request of Job Harriman, he made certain surveys, maps, plans and calculations in the defense in the cause of the People versus McNamara, and that during the progress of said work Clarence S. Darrow came to the city of Los Angeles and informed this affiant that he was in charge of the defense of this case, and that it was his duty to see that the affiant would be remunerated therefor.

The following quotations are taken from the "answer" to Bullard's "complaint." The answer was written by Harriman and was considered the greatest blunder made in any of the trials growing out of the McNamara crime.

It is during the early progress of the work, affiant informed that no funds were available to him to pay the wages of the draftsmen and other persons engaged on the work, and certain drafts were drawn by affiant.

affiant and were accepted first by Job Harriman in behalf of said defense, to the amount of $1400, running from 10 to 60 days from date thereof, and that subsequently Mr. Darrow informed affiant that the drafts were to be honored and paid from the defense fund. This affiant, believing in the integrity and representations of said Darrow, gave him copies of the work accomplished, together with affidavit of a portion of the Times Building, which was according to the instructions of and accepted by said Darrow, and that affiant subsequently learned that the drafts were repudiated by said Darrow, and that said Darrow was not paid, and that said Darrow personally, notwithstanding said drafts had been paid out in the interests of said Darrow and the said McNamara case.

Affiant can produce witnesses to prove that said Darrow had agreed for money or payment from affiant, and that affiant has refused to divide his fee with said Darrow or in any way stand for a rake-off or grain in this matter.

Affiant further states that said Darrow has acknowledged that he has had sufficient money of the defense fund on hand to pay the drafts. Affiant alleges the reason said drafts are not paid is solely because affiant has refused to divide said Darrow a portion of, and for the services rendered, and some of the others employed on the said work have refused to testify according to the directions of said Darrow and his henchmen.

Wherefore, affiant asks that the Bar Association cite C. S. Darrow to appear before it at an early date and show cause why he should not be disbarred from practicing as an attorney, and that affiant be allowed to produce witnesses to make proof and substantiate the charges of graft, flimflam and an attempt to corrupt witnesses as charged herein. (Signed) J. H. LEVERING.

This answer was to before a notary public, October 22, 1911.

When, in November, 1911, Bert Franklin, the detective, was arrested, charged with bribing jurors in the McNamara case, certain moneys came into the possession of the District Attorney. Believing that the moneys were of the McNamara defense fund, Dr. J. H. Bullard, to whom Levering's claim had been conveyed, attached them in order to get his pay, and got it.

EDWARD ADAMS CANTRELL.

RIAL'S TRIAD MONDAY.

Lee Rial will be tried in one of the two criminal departments beginning Monday. The defendant is supposed to be head of the alleged bribe ring. He is charged with receiving $5000 from G. F. Frost, Illinois business man. Deputy District Attorneys Blair and Shannon will represent the prosecution.

Kitty Phillips on Her Way

Indian Witness Served With Paper After Chase.

Miss Kitty Phillips, a scenario writer and motion-picture actress, said to be the original complainant against George H. Bixby, the Long Beach capitalist, was located yesterday in San Francisco and is being detained at the City Prison there. She will be brought back by Detective Erwin, summoned to appear before the grand jury.

She was found at the Chester Apartments in San Francisco and was accompanied to police headquarters by Miss Marie Forrester, according to dispatches. She said that she hadn't been trying to evade the police but had been told by an attorney that she was to appear before the grand jury.

The latest development is the disappearance of a well-known sporting man who is said to possess letters written by Miss Phillips to certain Los Angeles men which tend to corroborate the charge against George H. Bixby. Detectives were searching for the man all day yesterday. It is believed he will be located and served with a subpoena.

John T. Collier, an Indian motion-picture actor, was subpoenaed day before yesterday by Detective Louis Rico after an exciting trip to San Juan Capistrano. The detective reached the camp and asked for could leave town. He gave her $100 for her expenses, she said. She added:

"I knew the man as Kingsley, and when I learned he was married I went to his office and slapped his face and told him he was a scoundrel and had no right to do with him. My statements at that time caused all the trouble. I will have a good story to tell in Los Angeles.

After my quarrel with him he sent a private detective to have me and this man brought about my arrest for vagrancy. My attorney told me to plead guilty. They gave me a suspended sentence of 180 days and my attorney told me to leave town."

LAGARD RESULTS.

The grand jury session yesterday was devoid of results. The inquisitorial body met for a short time during the morning, at which time the members, presumably disengaged in some phase of the white slavery case, then adjourned until afternoon. A few comparatively unimportant witnesses, including S. L. Brown, a private detective, were heard. An early adjournment was taken until this morning.

Rico started in pursuit. He caught up with her in a little clearing just as she dismounted and called out something. Rico followed and called out something produced the subpoena.

The motion-picture actor is supposed to know about the relations said to have existed between Miss Evelyn Quick, an actress, and Richard Denslow, a poet, and William La Casse, who are now charged with a statutory crime.

Miss Quick, it is believed, never met Bixby. She has told her story to the detective and presumably has furnished valuable information.

MORE MEN IMPLICATED?

Upon the recommendation of Deputy District Attorney McNamee, who stands to the juvenile case proceedings were instituted before Judge Wilbur yesterday to have Delma Gentry, Mamie Leighton and Evelyn Quick, declared dependent minors. The first two were found living with Mrs. Ade. A. A. at a place on Glendale avenue. The girls are supposed to have information that will implicate a number of young men in delinquency proceedings.

B. Gatch, owner and builder, entertained at dinner the presidents and vice-presidents of the fourteen national banks of Los Angeles. A smoker and musical affair in the log cabin, which was designed for amusement purposes for the hotel. Mr. Gatch was formerly a national bank examiner.

Under the Federal statutes the men are eligible to parole after they have served one-third of their sentence, and it is to prepare for this contemplated release on the part of the commissioners that the information is being secured by the Washington authorities.

Robinson declared that the sentence of ten years in the case of Apaza was equivalent in the mind of Judge Rudolph to imprisonment for a life term, as the prisoner's condition is the primary consideration.

Upon Leonicio Lugo's shoulders was placed the blame for the killing of Stanley, as it was his plotting and planning against the representatives of the government that resulted in his being sentenced to a life term on the part of the Indian in a very low state.

As to the Lugo, Mr. Pablico, Cornelio and Francisco, the recommendation of the District Attorney was favorable in a degree, in that no recommendations will be made as to how the petitions for parole should be treated.

It is known that this quartette is considered the least culpable of the entire sextette. They did not fire the fatal shot, neither did they engage as Leonicio Lugo, in plotting against the authorities. Under the law of conspiracy they were compelled because they were in the schoolhouse that morning by appointment.

Off Magistrate and Barker Withdraw Litigation on Alleged Private Understanding.

The petition of J. C. Lamprecht, a Cleveland banker, to be allowed to intervene in the action brought by T. N. Barnsdall against the Petroleum Production Company, was withdrawn yesterday in Judge Wellborn's court. The action, instituted by Barnsdall was therefore discontinued by stipulation and the report of the referee, Mr. Jeff Patton, for damages reached the ground that Lamprecht was a creditor of the corporation, and that the assets of the concern were about to be dissipated. Lamprecht asked to be allowed to intervene and reopen the whole matter.

It was argued that Lamprecht knew all about the settlement of the litigation between Barnsdall and Yancey, and that he and Judge Wellborn was inclined to side with the San Francisco attorneys of Lamprecht, who wired that they would withdraw their opposition to the settlement.

It is understood, although it is not a matter of record, that Barnsdall, who is a Pittsburgh millionaire, will enter into a private understanding with Lamprecht, and control his properties in the various locations and properties owned by the Petroleum Production Company. James C. Yancey and others, with Lamprecht as a partner in the exploitation of the claims in Kern county, Yancey has disposed of all his interest in the property to Lamprecht, and accepted a large acreage of valuable timber land in Oregon that makes him a wealthy man. The holdings include what is known as the "Hopkins Lease" in Kern county, one of the best properties in the country.

In discussing the last of the cases yesterday, Judge Wellborn remarked that he was glad the intricate litigation is off the calendar.

AIRS.FOR WOMEN AND MEN.
Facts, Features and Fancies
BY OLIVE GRAY.

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: Please, oh please, if you are over sixty, do not wear the extremely girlish—yes, actually babyish—hats which are the vogue at present. I believe in remaining young, to the very limit of the possible, but there is a point beyond which youthful simulation becomes absurdity. I see those on the street who trespass beyond that limit.

In Boston there is a pottery which was started by a group of girls who, working for their daily bread, had aspirations for the beautiful and who determined to work evenings to secure for themselves and others a measure of beauty which their lives lacked.

I wonder if you realize what it means for girls busy all day and at the close of their working hours tired to the limit of human endurance, to turn to work after these hours. Most people would say to themselves: "We have reached the end. We have too tired and would spend the evenings in idleness or in visiting some cheap show. Not so those girls. They loved beauty well enough to tax themselves to the uttermost to achieve it. They formed a class in craftsmanship. The evening hours were spent in working hours to fashion articles from clay. At first it was the bowl—which is the simplest form of creative pottery making. It was the bowl, unornamented and depending wholly upon its symmetry and the coloring and texture of the material. The same girls, however, soon followed other forms of creation. People saw and admired, bought, and thus encouraged the work. There was so much call for the hand-wrought ware that it became necessary to start a shop for its sale. They called it the Bow Shop. The girls were soon found into the world with the stamp of its early beginnings as its hallmark and "Bow-Shop Pottery" became famous. From working at their avocation merely in the spare hours of the evening, after a long and tiresome day, the girls were enabled to give all their time and devotion to the creation of beauty, and as they had more time and more strength to give to the work, the work became stronger, more beautiful. The colorings expressed the harmony and the beauty of spirit which had gone into the making of the shop. It was a labor of love and devotion, and the creation of the ware. There was felt an creative instinct embodied itself in each piece which grew under the touch of those willing fingers. It is so different doing a thing because by it you express yourself—so different from doing it because you must do it, or die.

A Los Angeles shop has a collection of this ware. It is a delight to look at it and a delight to handle it. It is practical ware, too. There are adorable individual sets for serving the breakfast egg; wee bowls for holding the salt for the egg and a tray for carrying these dishes. There are of little cost, but of great beauty. There are honey jars, as carefully decorated as are the larger receptacles for salad or the sets for tea tray service. All are filled with the charm of individuality.

Parisian Ivory for Less. You can always pick out the country store for the Parisian Ivory for them, the women do congregate like bees around a honeysuckle vine. There was such a honeysuckle vine of bargains in one of the high class Broadway stores, yesterday, and there are enough to last several days. If not all the Parisian blossoms, in this instance, were antiques of Parisian Ivory. The reason for the new underwear which combines the vast of Italian silk, with a strong although fine weaves of drawers in cotton mesh. I saw these in one of the big stores at saving prices.

May-Pole Play.

One day, how life-like are the dolls of today, the so-called May-pole party in one of the stores which devotes itself chiefly to the things of children. These dolls seem to actually radiate the spirit of the May festival, as they pause in their circling around the be-ribboned pole.

Summery.

These are the days when those who make the dolls to give to the home a summer touch, are in the summer homes at beach or mountain sides, looking for something to add an effect of coolness to those retreats.

The good housekeeper who, as you know, never neglects the hominess of her home, no matter how deeply in debt she may be, is in affairs of the world, looking for "easier," chair, which would welcome to ease," as she said. I accompanied her and we found it in quite an unexpected place. It was in an esplanade of one of the big stores which, in dealing much in furniture, has something unique to offer. The lines. Their chair which she selected was roomy, of graceful construction and being made from finely woven grass, it yielded to every movement as one lounged. The price, too, was surprisingly low. "I shall place a big soft cushion at his back and that will send a note which is always like," said she, and added, "Come with

Bulgarian and Yet—

In the drapery department, what was our surprise to be shown several patterns in the Bulgarian patterns and with the colors so tempered that they were really not too glaring for drapery. This was one especially, which the Good Housekeeper instantly selected. It was in shades which might have been gathered in the garden with the dew upon them—or rather which might have been seen in the garden before the fog had cleared. The colors were so subdued were they. "That is just the thing for the big, soft cushion for the back of that big chair," said she and ordered an ample amount.

Coating Mattoleos.

Soft, silky and beautiful is that new material, which is shown in a store noted for its silk materials. This material, used exclusively for coats, is the Oriental colorings and patterns which are now so popular, and although the surface is so much elegant, the goods is so woven with a back of woolly texture, that it is very warm, although as light as any silk.

GETTING READY.
Nine young men from California passed examination for admission to the Naval Academy at Annapolis. If California continues to be against the government it may need its young soldiers.

HAPPY INNOVATION.
Pasadena is to hold its first spring festival May 16. Pasadena is a delightful carnival city and it is possible at that date to crown the Crown City with a riot of blossoms. The affair should be altogether lively.

THE REGRET TRACK.
Dr. Charles Edward Locke, pastor of the First Methodist Church, is out for John W. Shenk for Mayor. Dr. Locke has had the luck to pick a winner in every municipal campaign since he came to Los Angeles and his support of Mr. Shenk is a good omen as well as a most valuable and extensive influence.

WELCOME ADDITION.
The government has opened 100,000 acres of the Angeles Forest Reserve between Little Rock Creek and Mojave River to settlement. This is a welcome sesame to the homesteader. Every man is entitled to 160 acres of land in this country if he can get it, but the getting is often a difficult proposition.

DEFENDING THE HONOR.
The spectacle of Holy Hiram and his man Friday—Frank Heney—“defending the honor of California” is one that would bring a smile to the features of a cast iron dog. The trouble with Holy Hiram is organic and irremediable. He is laboring under the mistaken apprehension that he is the State of California.

DEFICIT IN FINANCE.
The treasury of France is $40,000,000 over this year on ordinary expenditures and $60,000,000 in bonds are called for to provide additions to the navy, which additions are contemplated to resist any German aggression.

Why does not France send for Underwood to frame a tariff law that would increase the public wealth by decreasing the public revenues?

FAILURE OF BELGIAN STRIKE.
The Belgian workers have lost ten millions of dollars or more in wages that they might have earned by the strike which was declared off by a plenary congress of the Socialist-Labor party a week ago, and it does not appear that they have gained a single point except to illustrate the utter futility and folly of strikes as a remedial measure for any wrong, either industrial or political.

AN EMBRYO SOCIALIST.
A New York 15-year-old boy named Edward Grasiano robbed his father's safe of $500 and paid this monitor of his school $1 to $2 a day for reporting him present when he was absent, so that he could have a good time spending the stolen money. The bicycle, the watch and the roller skates, which he acquired during his interregnum from his scholastic pursuits, were taken from him. He was spanked and committed to the care of the Children's Aid Society. The monitor who contributed to his disengagement was a son of Tammany and was exonerated with a reprimand.

Edward should be sent here. He would make an admirable treasurer for the Hiram-Barrow-Twelfth co-operative community.

POOR OLD ARIZONA!
There are 575 officers and employees of the State Department in Washington and in the diplomatic and consular service abroad, whose pay amounts to $1,145,282 per annum.

Of these New York has 75 appointments, the District of Columbia has 55, Pennsylvania has 65, and California, 32. Arkansas, Florida, Michigan, Nevada and Wyoming have each 1, and Arizona, “poor old Arizona,” is the only State in the Union that has none, although New Mexico has 2.

See if the independent citizens of the Standard State, whose diplomatic service or in it that the postmaster, Ashurst, and good old son Mark Smith, come to cool their heels at the pic counter? Arizona has Texans who could stand of the effects of the “Sons of Bitches” from the Baltic to the Mediterranean, or—unless the sun goes out of the sea at Tennessee Perch, Wake up, Mark, Arizona, Henry F. in your right.

A WELL-LOVED MAN.
Thousands of people will pass away this morning at Naples, Italy. Mr. Patterson was a prominent member of the浸信会-长老会 Church, the Grand Army of the Republic, the Susan Club and of all the Masonic orders, including the Shrine. He came here many years ago from Cincinnati, O., where he had been in the wholesale grocery business. For a long time he was in the commission business on Los Angeles street, being metropolis as a director of the First National Bank. When the Los Angeles National Bank was established he became its president, withdrawing from the directors of the First National. When these two institutions were consolidated in 1905 Mr. Patterson became second vice-president of the First National and occupied that position until death removed him from a wide sphere of usefulness. He was a joyful man of the highest integrity, unerring sincerity, broad charity, fine business ability, a rare capacity for friendliness, a keen sense of humor and a loyal type of citizenship. Los Angeles is a better city for his devotion to many of its lines of work.

THE MUCH-MODIFIED ALIEN LAND BILL.

Section 2 of the alien act as it now stands seems to deprive the law of any valid objection so far as Japan is concerned. True, it makes a distinction between aliens who are eligible and those who are ineligible to citizenship, but that distinction already exists and has hitherto been recognized by Japan without remonstrance. Section 2 of the California alien act provides that aliens not eligible to citizenship may acquire, possess, enjoy and transfer real property to the extent and for the purpose prescribed by any treaty now existing, etc.

The treaty now existing between Japan and the United States allows the subjects of the Mikado to acquire, by purchase or lease, lands for “residential purposes.” Whether a Jay by “residing” on a farm, in a laundry, a shop, a manufacturing establishment, or a hotel could be said to occupy the premises for “residential purposes” would be a disputed question for the Supreme Court to decide.

The decision of such a question unfavorably to the pretensions of Japan, whether by the courts or the enactment of a law by Congress, would not afford a casus belli to Japan, unless, as Congressman Hobson seems to think, she is yearning for a war with the United States, and it is not probable that, cocky as she is, she would be mad enough to inaugurate a contest in which the judgment of the world would be against her, and in which she would deserve the thorough thrashing that she would surely receive as the result of her temerity.

At the same time it may not be denied that we are as a nation at this moment unprepared for such a contest, and that California would, for the time being, receive the brunt of it. It was to be hoped that, considering all the circumstances, Holy Hiram's Legislature might have consented to forego the enactment of a law for which there was certainly no immediate necessity, and have allowed matters to remain as they were until after the Panama Exposition.

In the discussion attendant upon the legislation it seems to have been forgotten that eligibility to citizenship does not of itself constitute a title to admission to citizenship. Whether the application of an eligible foreigner, of whatever nationality, shall be granted or not is a matter which in each instance must be passed upon by the court before whom the application is made. If the judge is not satisfied with the moral or intellectual qualifications of the applicant; if he is not satisfied that his knowledge of our Constitution and laws, and his acceptance of them as a guide to his action, is sufficient to warrant his admission to citizenship naturalization it will be refused. He would be a bold judge who would indiscriminately admit Japs to citizenship, even if legally empowered to do so.

MEN NOT MAPS.
“What?” said an acquaintance to a neighbor who was the father of an erratic son, “are John's politics?” “Well,” replied the old gentleman, “I'm damned if I know, for I haven't seen him since breakfast.” The course of the proprietor of our steamship, superheated, steamed, poached and parboiled Progressive contemporary brings to mind Shakespeare's lines—

“Look as I blow this feather from my face
And as the air blows it to me again,
Obeying with my mind when I do blow
And yielding to another when it blows,
Commanded always by the greater gust.”

When it was proposed to amend the city charter so as to provide for representation in the City Council by districts, Toopious upon the hind legs of him and cursed all who advocated such an infamous proposition. “We should be governed,” said he in substance, “by men, not maps. Because a gentilman happens to live west of Westlake Park he is less fit to represent people who live near the Stephenson avenue cemetery? Away with such local prejudices!” Let the ticket for Councilmen be selected by ME and I will ignore geographical lines, for I know no north, no south, no east, no west, no anything else.”

The members of the Municipal Conference accepted a ticket of unexceptionable citizens who happen to reside where the bulk of the population of the city resides and do business—west of the Los Angeles River, or what would be a river if it had a queen full and a bob-tail flush.

Arrived in London it will be necessary to visit the concert halls where the subject of rural credits is sometimes discussed at the box office. In Paris the commissioners will be able to see at the cloisere de l'Assemblée nationale, the double soviet—is Darrow, who declares that the McNameas were “not morally guilty of anything”—is Harriman, with some $15,000 of money shipped in by the workers in his pocket, and his record stained with conspiracy against peace and order, as fit to cast a ballot that may affect the destinies of nation, State and city as the honest man, be he capitalist or pauper, who, without prejudice, or fear, or favor, votes as the best interests of the people demand.

At Berlin the commissioners will make themselves solid with the Kaiser by exhibiting their knowledge of intensive agriculture. The difference between a horse-chestnut and a chestnut horse will be explained. They will assure his Imperial Majesty that, as practical farmers, they never clubbed the turnips of the trees, but gently picked them, and that no intelligent California agriculturist would dig apples or pick potatoes from their bushes before Augustust. His Majesty in turn will explain to the commissioners how, under a system of rural credits, a rural credit corporation could be formed. A hundred farmers could each give his note, say for a thousand dollars, secured by a mortgage on his farm to the corporation. On his note, thus secured, the associated farmers' corporation would loan him, not the money, but some other farmer's note for the same amount, and as all the notes would be secured by a blanket mortgage on all the farms, the borrowing farmer could, by depositing the other notes of his own, obtain a rural credit for an income tax of $1,000.

The system is not altogether unlike that of the Socialistic community described by an English writer, the members of which made a precarious living taking in each other's washing.

Of course the taxpayers will be delighted at the appropriation of $3000 to give Holy Hiram's pets a trip to “Yunnan,” although it isn't really the farmers as much as those who buy farm products at present prices who need credit.

And then Toopious attacks Lissner and all his former associates who venture to differ with him. It won't hurt them.

“Things like Toopious must sing. And higher beings suffer; ‘the charter of life.’”

MAY DAY.

The quality of kindness, like that of money, is not strained.

“It twice blessed: It blessed him that gives him that takes.”

One who saw the joy automobiles bring yesterday could not fail to be impressed with the truth of this sentiment, as well as the beauty of it. How their faces show!

The faces of the automobile owners as well as the children! It were hard to say who were the happier, the motorists or the kids—or whom the experience did the most good.

It was the auto-owners' affair. The Times merely organized it, that's all. In behalf of 1500 or more of the gladdest children on earth The Times thanks the men and women who made this joyous event possible. Thanks and blessings from the little ones!

THE COST OF LIVING.

Short Tariff Talk Between a Curious Observer and the Naked Truth.

[New York Sun:] The Curious Observer watched the parade of passing events in silence and with growing perplexity. At last, unable to curb his curiosity any longer, he elbowed his way out of the crowd and called upon his friend Naked Truth.

“I have been watching the parade of passing events,” said the Curious Observer, “and I am amazed. Before our recent elections was it not maintained by certain individuals that a reduction of the tariff would result in lowering the cost of living?”

“It was,” replied Naked Truth.

DEALERS HEED S.O.S. CALL, MAKE MANY BABIES HAPPY.

Grand Marshal Conwell Heads Parade in Maxwell. Bert Dingley Carries Seventeen in National—P. A. Renton Brings Joy With Velie and Autocar and Little Giant Save the Day for Little Ones Left Behind.

By BERT C. SMITH.

HAPPY orphan children, who might have been sad, were given the time of their little lives yesterday because the automobile dealers of this city came to the help of The Times. When all of the automobiles—and there were many—had been rounded up, it was found that several little mid-sized parties were left out of the reckoning.

Then came the hurry call. At the seventh hour the automobile dealers were asked to provide trucks and money for cars and nearly 300 of the kids, who would not have enjoyed that grand beach ride, were taken care of and made of tears more.

Not a dealer who was given the opportunity to help make the babies glad refused.

J. S. Conwell, grand marshal, carried the dear little May Queen. Bert Dingley, the Chase truck man, carried the Mexican children. He had donated a Chase truck, but not content with that he took his own Hudson touring car and loaded it with the most forlorn little mids he could find. Unloading all those who did not seem happy or who were not smiling, he turned his May Queen, Miss Dominguez, into the tonneau of his touring car and started for Venice, after lighting the Chase truck load.

Here are the passengers: Catalina Esperada, a sweet-faced girl, bright and a regular; Dionisia Locana and her little sister; and a baby. The baby was much peevish because she had ridden even a mile in a truck and she settled back comfortably in the Hudson tonneau with baby Fernanda on her lap. Elsie Orris had never seen the National, but she had Lorraine Orton, and Leila Mapa saw the Pacific for the first time from the tonneau of Larry Elighols's car.

The "Oh's" and "Ooh's" that greeted the old ocean as Elighols's crowd rounded the Ocean avenue warmed the heart of the Chase truck man. Little girls saw their first boat. Four little tots toted the sand for the first time and four little midgets were tumbled from the car down to the breakers, where they dipped their toes in the water for the first time in their short lives. "It's worth the trouble and then some," was Elighols's comment as he watched the kiddies paddling in the surf. That was only the beginning of one round of fun for the little ones. Merry boot out the popcorn man and grab him all the ice cream cones he could carry and then ordered oranges. "Having the time of my life," was his comment as he kept on buying.

After reaching Venice, Bert saw that each child's stomach was full. Perhaps he was liberal, not always wise, but he was liberal to give several kinds of tummy-aches to the seventeen children that Dingley crowded into that seven-passenger National. "Bring them to me. Any way to get them in. But don't leave a baby behind," was the order of the chimpion motorist. His word was strong and as a result the National carried a record load of kids.

MOROSCO STAR MAKES HER PICTURE DEBUT.

By AD G. WADDELL.

G RACE VALENTINE, ingenue of actresses who can boast of playing for the cameras and the stage fairs at the same time, made her debut as a moving picture actress at Venice yesterday afternoon. She was supported by an all-star cast of more than 1500 brilliants which included Bert Dingley, the automobile race driver and manager of the National Motor Car Company; George Lyons, the constable; J. S. Conwell, little Palma Dominguez, queen of the May; Ward McFadden, Frank Abbott, Paul Hallinan, and the children taken to the beach on the annual Times May Day ride.

The popular little actress had her machine filled with youngsters at 1 o'clock and drove to the beach with the driver. Bert Dingley, the "bigrapher," amateur and professional, kept the favorite busy posing, and it was with difficulty that she was able to get her charges to the merry-go-round and race through the crowd to the pink tandem stand.

When Miss Valentine discovered that the youngers had been piling candy on the tandem stand, she turned to the camera and said, "I'm not going to let them have all the candy."

When Buffum discovered Miss Valentine's children adopted for the afternoon, he made her a contract to stick around and she was out of a nurse's job for a while.

J. S. Conwell, little Palma Dominguez, queen of the May, was the star of the day. She made pictures of the children as they ran from one place of amusement to another, while three other members of his company were busily entertaining the children who had brought down in their carts.

CRUCIAL TEST IS ON TODAY.

Bill Bacon Shines in the Third Flight.

Skelly Takes Honors in the

La. A. Country Club Gives Australians Welcome.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

The final match for the tournament cup will be played over thirty holes at the San Gabriel Country Club today between Morris Phillips of San Gabriel and Robert L. Tatum of Los Angeles.

In the meantime, however, Conde Jones is the blushing hero of the third flight. He defeated George H. Potter in the final match yesterday by 5 up and 4. Conde Jones is becoming quite a golfer. I can see a great future for him one of these days. He'll be winning the cup for the defeated eight in the second flight next time. Little by little, steadily upward.

But on this occasion Bill Bacon of Burbank is the star. Defeated George Wright of Anaheim by 3 up and 2, Tonnis will soon find a trifling after this—no game for a war golfer, dash it all. This makes the second cup Bacon has won in tournament play, although he only took up golf last year. He has beaten two good players this time, A. M. Goodhue of Long Beach and young Wright.

La. A. Skelly of Riverside is the winner of the fourth flight by 5 up and defeated him easily by 5 up and 4. It is good to see at least one prize go to Riverside after their sporting response to the tournament.

John C. Plaisted, performer is Robert Devereux. He defeated Basell yesterday by 2 up and will now play the winner of the Valentine-Bradley match for the cup. Farnie is awaiting at him copy round the course.

There is more to come than he can bear. He walks past that price-index table and tries not to gasp when with too proprietary an air, "It's hard."

In the meantime the Los Angeles Country Club has given over to the entertainment of the Australian tennis stars who are staying here on their way to the Davis challenge. Torrance Rose, A. H. Jones and Thomas Hicks.

They were entertained with both luncheon and dinner parties at Beverly Hills and again yesterday, several of our own tennis enthusiasts doing the honors. Harold Brady, Simpson Sinesbaugh, A. V. Duncan, Charles Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Clegg, Wayne and Nat Brown were all at their club to play the hospitable game on Wednesday, while John S. Cravens, Archibald C. Way, Nat Brown, Overton B. Morris and Simpson Sinesbaugh were the guests yesterday. John S. Clegg carried the whole party off to dinner at the new Midway Country Club in the evening, after a most enjoyable day at the party in which some wonderful exhibition tennis was given.

Today the Los Angeles Country Club golfers are expecting a weekend visit from a large party of northern golfers from the Burlingame Country Club of San Francisco. The most elaborate entertainment is being made for their reception, and the day after for the kind that is promised. It is breakfast in the morning. While lady diners are not exactly precluded, you understand, there will be a rather chilly welcome awaiting them if they elect to encumber the salaried too far. They don't want to be churlish, but—adopted the Dan Johnson policy of that, but he has endeavored to raise to back up his umpires and if there will endeavor to replace them with COLLEGE BALL.

THEY WILL NOT FINISH OUT THE PRESENT SEASON.

Losing Team Does Not Benefit the College—Team Failed for Lack of a First-Class Twirler—Will Try to Make a Better Showing Next Year.

The Whittier College baseball nine, which has served as percentage favorite for every college team in the nation, has decided to quit the game. The reason is that a losing team does not benefit the college and may, perhaps, do the college some harm. There is perhaps more truth than poetry in this statement.

Wallingford, "the Get-Rich-Quick" individual so popular both on the stage and in action, has evidently struck the taste of local playgoers a niche for the comedy which attracts enormous audiences to the Burbank Theatre, where the announcement came forth last night that the play would be continued for another week.

The reason for this sudden withdrawal is, according to Buffkin, that a losing team does not benefit the college and may, perhaps, do the college some harm. There is perhaps more truth than poetry in this statement.

It is certain that when a team gets uninterested and starts running around the way the Quakers have this year, they do not have much of a tendency to inspire respect.

Pomona, Occidental and Redlands each handed the Quakers a life-size beating and even Troop College beat them after a terrible loss.

The Quakers would have had a really good ball team this year—if they had had the one essential thing—a good pitching staff. With "Bingo" Finch removed at the college at the beginning of the year, the Quakers had prospects of a winning team. Oliver took a game from the East with a bit of reputation.

When the second semester opened both Finch and Oliver were found to be among the missing and with them went the Quaker hopes.

Oliver, the Quaker coach, the man who is a good all-round athlete, was pressed into service in the box, but he seemed to have nothing but a slow, straight ball, and he spent the greater part of his time dodging the arrows of the critics.

Finch, however, was straight for his team.

Obviously there is much local interest in "Damaged Goods," for last night's mail brought nine requests for invitations to the Moroso office.

I don't want to be accused of hurting the Quakers or giving them the palm for generosity. Let's stand him up beside the noble army of willing workers. After trying all morning to get at Autocar Bulleyk was at his wit's end. Not a truck in stock. A boy, sold and delivered, was brought back into the service and Bulleyk paid for a truck that the babbles might ride. It was not until that truck had carried its load to the beach and back to the city that the second question, a stay-down at Venise and imbibing all of the salt air that his lungs will hold in an effort to be in the best of shape for his fight with Anderson.

Mandot lost quite a good deal of time in his fight with Finch, and Cross and he realizes that he will have to win decisively to put himself back among the contenders for the lightweight crown. He will start serious training on Sunday afternoon.

Cooking as a Fine Art.
FOR WOMEN HOMEKEEPERS.

FASCINATING TALK ON A FASCINATING ART.

Open House and Free Lessons Three Days in the Week, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, in Afternoon, Second Floor New "Times" Building.

It is a well-known fact that the raisins and dried fruits which we buy in foreign lands—if they are experienced travelers—usually carry in their pockets a supply of raisins and a package of chocolate when they start out on a day of sightseeing, where the date or restaurant is an uncertain proposition. Campers and miners and forest rangers also recognize the merit and sustenance of the raisin; it not only supplies food, but also keeps one from getting thirsty, so is simply invaluable for these purposes, let alone the delicious taste of the fruit.

Wednesday was "raisin day" at The Times Cooking School, as elsewhere in California. F. E. Battura, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, sent a box of choice Fresno raisins, which the students of the Building used in the demonstration. In accident that box was delivered on the third floor where the editorial staff do congregate, and great was the rejoicing thereof. Recognizing that was the force "fell to" with surprising agility. The raisins were put up in neat half-pound packages and were passed about in great glee. Just as the feast of raisins was at its height, Mrs. Haffner-Ginger, on the floor below, who had been wondering where on earth those raisins were that had been promised her, did cover their whereabouts and sent a hurry call for the Fresno fruit. She rescued enough to make a couple of small raisin pies, a raisin pudding, and had a plateful or two of raisins to pass around as a dessert to the raisin meal she prepared.

Raisin Pies and Things. The first thing the cook lady made was a raisin pie. For the filling she used raisins, of course, with eggs and milk for wetting. The upper crust was simply a series of strips of pastry which she had cut from the roll and from the center and making convenient markers for cutting the pie.

After the filling was in the pie she simply showed how it could be done. The proof of the raisin pudding she made, however, was in the eating. Using the golden cake she made on Monday for a foundation, she put the pudding together with the alternate layers of the cake and the raisins, sprinkling the latter with chipped pressed ginger to put ginger into the pudding. When she had built it up to the top of the deep aluminum pan she poured a mixture of beaten eggs and milk over the whole for wetting, put a cover over the pudding and set it in the oven to bake. Then she made a layer of sauce and just before serving poured it over the pudding.

Tip to the Flour Mills.

Mrs. Haffner-Ginger announced that she had over 100 names of those registered for the trip to the flour mills next Tuesday, she had 45 covered that it lacked forty or fifty of the required 200, and requested others to register. All who have registered up to date are eligible to go on the Tuesday trip and must be at the Times Building in the cooking school auditorium, at 10 o'clock sharp, in order to make the start promptly at the hour set in the special cars chartered by the dons committee for the purpose. A light lunch will be served at the mills and an opportunity to go over the entire plant under the guidance of men who will explain the various processes of making flour and its ingredients which goes into every baking batch in the household and which forms so important a part of our daily sustenance.

The Tools She Works With.

The perfect equipment of The Times Cooking School is a matter of daily comment among the women in the audience. Not a thing in the realm of household tools is missing and everything is of the newest and most down-to-date pattern. Wednesday the cook lady used a newfangled tin pie with asbestos lining—can't burn your pie crust with this.

The spatula, with which she mixes and molds pastry and cake dough calls forth especial admiration from the housekeepers.

"I never did like to mix with my hands," remarked one fastidious young matron, "and you know a spatula simply does the business for you."

"But the chief thing I admire about it," observed a practical housewife, "is that it keeps the mixture hot and perfectly. It is so limber and flexible that you can remove every particle of dough from the bowl or pan."

"These little flour sifters," said Mrs. Haffner-Ginger, as she briskly turned the crank of the one-cup sifter, "are most convenient to take on camping trips; they take up so little room and still answer every purpose."

Sandwiches This Afternoon.

Today's demonstration will consist of sandwiches, and it is most appropriate for the picnic season is upon us.

Not to say that in Southern California picnics are not always in order but just now, when the spring flowers are all a-bloom and the fruit trees the countryside beckons us we are an especially alluring hand.

For Information.

Mrs. Haffner-Ginger's office hours in the Times Building are from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. For information about free lectures or the school kitchen courses, phone Mrs. Bertha Haffner-Ginger, Main 8200 or Mrs. Haffner-Ginger, Main 1833.

PEOPLE THEIR OWN MAYOR

ALL MUST CO-OPERATE IN RULE OF CITY, SAYS SHENK.

CLARION CALL TO CIVIC DUTY BY POPULAR CANDIDATE.

REALTY BOARD CHEERS PASTOR WHO ENDORSES HIM.

JOHN W. SHENK, Municipal Conference and popular candidate for mayor, spoke on "Civic Duty" at a crowded meeting of the Los Angeles Realty Board at Brink's Cafe yesterday and the hearty reception given him and to his endorsement by Dr. Charles Edward Locke, another speaker, left no doubt as to the attitude of the leading real estate men of the city toward the next Mayor.

Shenk spoke briefly, but with a punch. "Civic duty is good citizenship," he said, "and good citizenship is being alive. This citizen must not be directed alone to private ends, but must also be enlisted in community efforts. Civic duty involves interest in all public questions.

Every citizen should be well informed in order to act intelligently in carrying his ballot. He must go further and help the man elected to give the city a good administration.

"Public office is too great a responsibility to be held by a mere servant, and the good servant will invite the operation of all elements in behalf of the city's welfare. If I am so fortunate as to be elected, I want the governing board and all the members of this organization to advise and consult with me on public questions in which they have an interest.

"It is because of my seven years of experience with the affairs of this city that I feel that I can serve the citizens as their Mayor. I did not consider this. I have planned the line of personal endeavor much more to taste, but now that I am in the campaign I want you to know that I have red blood in my veins and that I will try to put things through.

The Hurry Habit

Hurry and Worry are the advance agents of Nerve Exhaustion. They have been called "the great American disease." Winter days are the short days and the hurry days. It is easy to get Johnny off to school or husband off to work in the home without hurry or worry where is served at the morning meal. Shredded Wheat is ready-cooked and ready-to-serve. Two of the biscuits with hot milk or cream make a warm, nourishing meal, supplying all the strength needed for a half day's work or play.

Cottolene
is 100% shortening

When you buy butter for cooking purposes, you are paying for 25% water and salt; you get but 75% real shortening value. In Cottolene you get 100% shortening.

Cottolene costs much less than good butter—and gives just as good results in shortening and frying. Cottolene is as cheap or cheaper than lard—gives better results—and is absolutely healthful, which is more than can be said of lard.

Cottolene is economical, because one-third less is required than of either butter or lard.

Wash your clothes with GOLD DUST

Good soap washes clothes well—if you use enough elbow grease, but Gold Dust washes them more thoroughly—and with little or no rubbing. Gold Dust saves half your time, and spares your poor back.

Another great advantage of Gold Dust—use any kind of water you like. Gold Dust softens the hardest water and makes it soft as rain water.

Gold Dust is just a vegetable-oil soap in powdered form, with other cleansing ingredients added to make it work more thoroughly and quickly than soap ever can.

PEOPLE THEIR

Popular Candidate.Really Board Cheers Pastor
Who Indoors Him.John W. Shenk, Municipal Confer-day and the hearty reception given point. "Civic duty is good citizenship," he said, "and good citizenship is being alive. This citizen must not be directed alone to private ends, but must also be employed in community effort. Civic duty involves an answer to every public question.

Every citizen should be wakened and called to act intelligently in fasting his ballot. He must go further and help the man elected to give the city a good administration."Public office in Los Angeles is no bed of roses. In the enforcement of the law, the government will invite the co-operation of all elements in behalf of the city's welfare. If I am so fortunate as to be elected, I want the governing board and all the members of the organization to advise me and not to be afraid to pose public questions in which they may be involved."It is because of my seven years of experience with the affairs of this city that I feel that I can serve its citizens as their Mayor. I did not court the office. I had planned another line of work, but I was called to do what I do. But now that I am in the position I want you to know that I have red blood in my veins and that I will try to put things through."I believe in the enforcement of the law, but I believe in an administration which will seek justice and which applies sanity and horse-sense to all public actions. I believe in maintaining a reputation for decency, but the great masses of the people are decent and I do not believe in the honesty of the people who believe the cause is clearly to take advantage of the last technicality. I am not in fear of extreme measures and of in-clemencies. I may make mistakes but you have done, but I have the need to do the job and to do it the right way. I am not afraid to make mistakes, but I am afraid to make them in team work."

STRONG ENDORSEMENT.

Dr. Locke, pastor of the First Methodist Church, declared himself heartily in favor of the election of Shenk.
He said that he is a good mascot because it had been his luck to sit at a desk just beside the outgoing mayor eighteen months ago and support his election. Dr. Locke was thence with enthusiasm which exceeded the unanimous concurrence of his board in his opinion.Dr. Locke spoke with animation on the subject of the City beautification and he spoke more of the necessity of electing Shenk at the primaries and predicted that this would be accomplished. He said that he gloried in the Los Angeles spirit and that he was sure that the other candidates to be announced, will be pronounced to be as pronounced.The people he declared, may look the world in the face without shame. They have a far better city than most in the world, because it is the best city in the world. It is the most beautiful. An open city, he said, is a city under a curse and no city can fulfill its destiny if it does not stand for the home, the church and the city, he declared, is the picture of Shenk.

STRONG FOR SHENK.

John W. Shenk should be elected as the next mayor of Los Angeles, he said yesterday, because his intimate affiliation with the legal department of the city for seven years makes him the logical candidate, because he is independent and because he represents the interests of the municipal service. Clean-cut, straightforward, middle, young, able; a good lawyer, a cultured gentleman, a forceful personality, the right man in the right place.This is the sentiment which is prevailing over the city in the last of the pre-primary campaign which will find adequate expression at the polls on Tuesday if the voters who stand for and believe these qualities do their duty.The same argument applies with equal force to Shenk's running mate Lee Stephens, candidate for Attorney. Stephens has made a name in Los Angeles. The people know what he can do because he has done it and at the head of the most legal department of the corporation he has the right to take a safe course. His independence of Earl dominion, and his individualism to become party to a political trade even though such a course would have realized to him a certain acknowledged ambition to the people, which would have strengthened his candidacy.Opponent, George E. Cray, is doubtless and avowedly an Earl candidate and Cray himself said in a recent speech that he was proud and proud of the support of the great republican leaders.Stephens should be elected at the primary without further necessity of campaigning, for the respective claims upon the confidence of the voters are so well known that they should become unnecessary.John G. Myers, for Auditor, and Walter Mallard for Assessor have no real opposition for the office which they now occupy. All the work of the campaign on the part of their parties can postpone their election until the primary of May 6, to a meeting of June 3.

FOR COUNCIL.

The Council there are several ex--council candidates, any nine of which will give the city an efficient business administration. The most prominent of these has endorsed J. E. Covell,
W. L. Langdon, Alexander MacKeehan,
John W. Moultrie, H. Z. Osborne,
H. E. Snowden, H. P. Vollmer, F.
Whitton, and F. E. Woolley. Besides these, the following are also entitled to the careful consideration of the electors. The Community has endorsed the present

CRITICISE SURVEY WORK.

Associated Chambers of Commerce Not Convinced That Engineering Work Has Been Properly Done.

SANTA ANA, May 1.—At the meeting of the Orange County Associated Chambers of Commerce last night some criticism of the survey work of the State Highway Commission was indicated. The State Highway Commission was indicated. The talk started from a letter received from W. D. Coleman and three others, declaring that the work is hampered because the Chief Engineer and his assistant came from outside the county and did not know how. He pledged to carry the work forward to completion, emphasizing the water, power and harbor problems. He declared that the city faces a crisis which must be met and overcome coolly and courageously before it becomes a menace.

"If I were elected Mayor," he said, "I want to work for you. I want you to come to my office and tell me face to face what you think about things. My only purpose in becoming your candidate is in the hope that the experience I have gleaned in my years of service in the legal department may be of use to you home owners and home seekers."

Shenk was followed by Albert Lee Stephens, candidate for City Attorney, who declared his single purpose to work for the advancement of the city in every department. He spoke of his thirty years' residence in Los Angeles, his head of the ticket—efficiency, team work, enforcement of the existing laws, maintaining the municipality in decent and orderly, harbor department, distribution of aquatic power through existing system if it can be reasonably acquired, the fighting of the social evil and expeditious handling of the legal business of the city. Stephens briefly told his audience of his work as a lawyer and his unimpaired endorsement by every existing organization except the Municipal Conference, which he said was not in the nomination.

During his first term he served on the Supply Committee, and it was largely through his efforts that the municipal store was established. This has proved to be a great financial success.

The Highway Commission has leased gravel beds at McPherson, and will install a rock crusher there for grinding material to be used in building good roads. About fifty miles of road have been gone over in the preliminary survey, and a force of roadmen will be on the job, assisted by the office. Engineer Halladay expects to have the work in shape for calling for bids about June 1.

After inspecting the Santa Ana Canyon, the commission decided to build the entire road from Olive to the Santa Ana county line on the south side of the mountain, instead of the north side and coming back to the south side.

BOGUS ART.

Tomas Gastelum and Pedro Garza are in jail here awaiting Federal officers who will prosecute them on a charge of raising $1,000 to $10,000. Incidentally, it is thought that a good many of the men who have been arrested have been floated at Los Angeles and Long Beach recently.

The bill that got them in trouble was given to Mrs. Medina, a boarding house keeper at Los Angeles, who did not know it was a bad bill until her attention was called to it by a storekeeper, who noticed that a part of one figure had fallen away when the bill was crumpled. The work was done by a man who had been easily paid.

GEAR WITH CHECK KITING.

John W. Cress, apprehended in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon on charges of having been a member of the gang of men who were robbing the Bank of America, was released on $1,000 bail. The trial date was set for June 20.

ORANGES BRING THE CASH.

Frost Does Much Late Damage.

THAN WAS ANTICIPATED in the Fullerton District—Short News Stories.

FULLERTON, May 1.—After the cold snap of this season some local orange growers estimated that there would be a falling off of at least 75 per cent of orange shipments from Fullerton, while the largest grower, C. C. Chapman, declared he did not believe there would be a shortage of more than 10 per cent on account of the cold weather.

From September 1, 1911, to April 30, today, 237 carloads of oranges were shipped from Fullerton, while the output for the same period last year was 281 carloads. This shows a shortage of only 15 per cent as compared with last year. Local fruit men claim that last year's crop was 115 per cent above the 1910 crop.

Elmer Ford and family who were well-known residents of this city for many years are planning to remove from Fullerton, because of the cold weather.

Robert Bowes, who sustained serious injuries in a runaway accident recently, is slowly recovering at the hospital.

J. Lehman and family of La Habra have moved to Corona, where Mr. Lehman is a prominent real estate man. Mr. Lehman is a pioneer of La Habra, having done much to build up that section.

Mr. Helen M. Cusick, wife of Mr. Cusick, died here yesterday. She was one of the best known residents of the Fullerton district.

DISHMAN DISAGREEMENT.

Kitchen Utensils Said to Have Been Used in Family Quarrel—Woman Goes to Hospital.

A community living arrangement between Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ginsberg and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Ginsberg at No. 1111 Angelina street had an unhappy ending in an alleged free-for-all fight between the two brothers and their wives yesterday morning. The combatants in the kitchen of the home, when dishes, pots and pans are supposed to have been used as missiles, was Mrs. Nathan Ginsberg, in delicate health. She is in the County Hospital suffering from bruises and a nervous shock.

Warrants for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ginsberg, charging them with battery, were issued yesterday afternoon in Police Judge Chambers' court. Nathan charged that his wife was attacked by his brother and the latter's wife. The trouble started, it is said, with Nathan and his wife suggesting that their children from a partnership arrangement move to a separate home. Joseph is a tailor and Nathan a shoe dealer.

CANDIDATE FOR COUNCIL.

Frederick J. Whiffen was elected to the Council in June, 1910, to fill one of the vacancies caused by the resignation of John D. Works and Richmond Plant. He was again elected in November, 1911, to succeed himself.

During his first term he served on the Supply Committee, and it was largely through his efforts that the municipal store and purchasing department was established. This has proved to be a great financial success.

He also served as chairman of the Land and Public Buildings Committee and was able to restore title to considerable valuable land which the city city over which he had no care. The title had become impaired.

During his present term in the Council he has served as chairman of the Finance Committee, a work he is doing well. He is a man of great energy and is well liked by his colleagues.

Whiffen refers to his record in the Council as his platform and says:

"I have done my duty well and have been faithful to the public trust, then I should be deserving of re-election."

STOCK-ISSUE HEARING.

Commissioner Edgerton of the State Railroad Commission is to be here Friday of next week to hear the application of the Fernando Valley Development Company to issue stocks and bonds and of the same company and the Tujunga Water and Power Company, to transact property. SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

A movement was started by a council committee yesterday to prevent further burials in Rosedale Cemetery within 150 feet of the proposed street line for the opening of Sixteenth street from Normandie avenue to Pacific avenue.

To Legislation Committee of the Council recommended yesterday the inclusion of two large and important districts within the boundaries of fire district No. 1.

The first publication of the ordinance providing for salaries of Harbor Commissioners will be made today. The salaries will go into effect June 1.

Checking names of the garbage destructor referendum was completed yesterday and it was found nearly 2000 names short of the number required to place the question on the ballot at the municipal election.

The Board of Public Works yesterday ordered the Pacific Electric to relay its tracks and bring to grade its right of way on Hollywood boulevard from Normandie to Vermont avenues.

A man Fernando was courted by a traveling salesman who, according to her, was married, turned the tables on him and appeared in the Superior Court yesterday as his wife's principal witness in her suit for divorce.

NEW LINES FOR FIRE DISTRICT.

RECOMMENDS PROPOSAL FOR IMPORTANT CHANGES.

Council's Committee Endorses Plan of Building Inspector for Inclusion of Two Large Sections Under Provisions of Present Ordinance—Goes to Legislators Tuesday.

Approval of the Council Legislation Committee was given yesterday to the recommendations of the Chief Inspector of Buildings that the boundaries of fire district No. 1 be enlarged to include two important districts within which there is much building activity.

Inspector Brooks proposes that the district to be included shall be the territory lying west of the present westerly line, a half-block west of Main street, to Figueroa street, and from Figueroa to Washington streets; and the territory from Fourth to Temple street, and from Figueroa street to the present boundary on Hill street.

As there is much building activity in each of these districts and they are so closely attached to the central portion of the city and the commercial business district, Brooks believes that more rigid restrictions should be placed upon the class of structures that may be erected.

Attempts have been made heretofore to enlarge the limits of fire district No. 1, but these have been with vigorous opposition from property owners, who believed their holdings were not yet of sufficient value to justify the more expensive class of structures.

The recommendation of the Legislation Committee is to be before City Council next Tuesday, and it is probable that this will again call forth protests against including the districts proposed.

WILL HAVE SALARIES.

HARBOR BOARD'S PROSPECTS.

The Harbor Commission will soon be in a position where it will not have to work for nothing and board itself. The city is actually going to pay salaries to the members of this commission, beginning with June 1. Today the first publication of the ordinance providing for this will be made. Thirty days thereafter it becomes effective, and each harbor commissioner will be entitled to receive $50 a month. The Mayor signed the ordinance on Wednesday.

He stated yesterday that he has no doubt that as soon as the salaries are available for these positions there will be no trouble in getting competent persons willing to fill the existing vacancies. The new members of the office concurred with him in the running the affairs for the necessary data, and the public will be served.

They're at It Again.

The Plasterers' Union has been anxious for months for the passage of an ordinance that will compel builders to put on their structures various coats of plaster according to the ideas of the union. The demand has not been granted. Inspector of Buildings Backus, but the unionists are persistent, and appeared before the Legislation Committee of the Council yesterday with their demand that an ordinance in this character be recommended. The proposal was sent to the Building Ordinance Revision Commission.

Stephenson-avenue Sidewalks.

At the suggestion of Councilman Topham, the Streets and Boulevards Committee decided yesterday to recommend to the city that the sidewalk be instituted to make the sidewalk on Stephenson avenue five feet in width. Those property owners who want the walk ten feet wide will be given the privilege of making them out by a written contract in order to settle a bitter controversy among residents of the street.

DO NOT Like the Sound.

Wid street doesn't sound well to the ears of the residents of that thoroughfare, which is located in Hollywood, and a petition to change the name to Holly street was withdrawn by Frank Feltle for the defendant Aaron Alper, president of the Great Western, whose name was used in the petition. The movement was headed by the city engineer and city attorney.

THE referendum is dead. It lacks about 2000 of having the required number of certified names. The requirement is 18,750 signatures to have placed it on the ballot at the next election. About 1600 signatures are now in, but because of the fact that they were certified by a man who is not a registered voter of this city. Enough other names were discarded to cut the qualified voters far below the number required. As there is no referendum, this movement is now killed, and the Board of Public Works may proceed with its relaying and opening of bids for the garage destructor.

OH, THEY ROAR!

DO THESE WILD ANIMALS.

Numerous residents and property owners on the East Side, in the vicinity of the Wild Animal Farm, filed a petition to the City Council yesterday for the removal of the concern at the ground that it is detrimental to the peace and quietude of the neighborhood and that its presence depreciates the values of property in that vicinity. The petitioners go into detail as to alleged troubles and dangers.

"Our peace and quiet is perpetually disturbed by the hideous and unseemly noises made by these animals at any and all times of the day and night, and by the maintenance of a slaughter pen where they kill old and decrepit horses for food for these animals."

The petitioners declare that the stench arising from this condition is unbearable and that property values are depreciated. They declare that they have been lenient, because they expected the concern to move away, but instead of this more animals are being gathered there.

MUST GRAVES PAY?

SERIOUS QUESTION ARISES.

In discussing the movement to begin new proceedings for the opening of Sixteenth street from Pacific avenue to Normandie street, the Legislation Committee of the Council yesterday had a new aspect presented for its consideration. The proposition was made that if possible, steps should be taken to prevent any further burials in lands lying within 150 feet of either side of the proposed street lines, as such land would be subject to assessment under the new proceedings for the street opening. Unless exemption of land occupied by graves is possible, there should be an ordinance wherein relatives of persons buried in Rosedale Cemetery within this 150-foot limit might fail to pay the assessments and the graves would have to be moved for the public auction. This requirement makes the prohibition of more graves a necessity, members of the committee believe. The subject was referred to the City Attorney for an opinion on the rights of the Council to demand that no more graves be made in the limits mentioned and its right to exempt grave properties now existing.

RIGID INSPECTION.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

City Sealer of Weights and Measures Harshman was before the Legislation Committee of the Council yesterday to urge the adoption of an ordinance that will prohibit peddlers to carry on their scales and measures the certificate of this official. He proposed that such ordinance shall provide that vendors of fish, fruit and vegetables must have their scales and measures twice a year for inspection and certification. Objection was made to this method, and it was suggested that one of Harshman's deputies be stationed at the City Clerk's office during the ten days each year when the scales and measures are to be checked, and that the Sealer's certificate must be secured there before the license is issued. The subject was referred to the City Attorney and Harshman to draft an ordinance on the lines of this.

MUST REPLY IN TWELVE.

The Pacific Electric must bring to grade its right of way and tracks in Hollywood boulevard, from Normandie to Vermont avenues. So the Board of Public Works decided yesterday in the case of the company that the present tracks until the street be regularly improved.

Inspector of Public Works Harshman has in place the tracks eight inches above the official grade, and that vehicles have great inconvenience in attempting to cross the right of way, while several accidents have occurred. He believes that this condition has existed "for a long time without any apparent reason. Under the present condition the right of way in the center of the street is not available for public traffic."

WILL BEAR EMERGENCY CLAUSE.

The Legislation Committee of the City Council decided yesterday that the ordinance providing for the stoppage of vehicles ten feet in the rear of street cars standing to discharge passengers at bus stops and street intersections, should bear the emergency clause. The ordinance was passed at the last Council session without such clause, and steps will be taken to adopt a similar one next Tuesday.

The recommendation of the Legislation Committee is to be before City Council next Tuesday, and it is probable that this will again call forth protests against including the districts proposed.

WILL HAVE SALARIES.

HARBOR BOARD'S PROSPECTS.

The Harbor Commission will soon be in a position where it will not have to work for nothing and board itself. The city is actually going to pay salaries to the members of this commission, beginning with June 1. Today the first publication of the ordinance providing for this will be made. Thirty days thereafter it becomes effective, and each harbor commissioner will be entitled to receive $50 a month. The Mayor signed the ordinance on Wednesday.

He stated yesterday that he has no doubt that as soon as the salaries are available for these positions there will be no trouble in getting competent persons willing to fill the existing vacancies. The new members of the office concurred with him in the running the affairs for the necessary data, and the public will be served.

WILL SIMPLIFY PROCEDURE.

A topic before the Legislation Committee of the City Council yesterday and that will be of interest to hundreds of people, was that of adopting some system whereby the process of securing permits under city ordinances can be simplified. This is especially true in the case of the building department and the permits issued under the occupation tax ordinances. At present applicants have to chase from one department to another in order to get the permit if it is issued. In order to meet the requirements of the ordinance, the committee has recommended that an ordinance be passed to make the procedure as simple as possible.

TRUST IS ALLEGED.

AT THE PHILIP SENEGAR COMPANY AGAINST NEIL FINKELSTEIN FOR AN INJUNCTION RESTRAINING HIM FROM DOING A JUNK BUSINESS IN LOS ANGELES AND $25,000 DAMAGES, WAS STRICKEN FROM THE COURT yesterday. The case was called in Judge Monroe's court, and from the witness of witnesses, it was evident the evidence presented to the running about for the necessary data, and the public will be served.

ALL OVER JUNK.

THE motion to dismiss was made by the attorneys for the plaintiff, who declared the suit will be compromised. The terms, however, were not made known. The defense, however, was not present. Finkelstein said he expected to show that contracts entered into with the Senegar Company were made for the purpose of restraining the metal market. These contracts, it was alleged, controlled the junk business in the city and is a subsidiary of the Great Western Smelting and Refining Company, with $25,000,000 capitalization. The junk dealers were bound by a series of contracts to do business with the Senegar company. The latter was prepared to show that these allegations were without foundation, that the Senegar company bought out Finkelstein, and that the evidence presented to the running about for the necessary data, and the public will be served.
